“A beautiful end product happens when elements are not thrown together; it’s the attention to details that matter. It’s the whole art piece.”

—BRODY DERNEHL

With nearly five decades of experience shaping Atlanta’s residential landscape, The Dernehl Company has established itself as a benchmark in custom home and luxury estate construction. Known for enduring craftsmanship and thoughtful execution, the firm has delivered hundreds of residences—from intimate custom builds to expansive estates—each defined by quality that stands the test of time.

At the core of Dernehl’s success is a highly personalized approach. Every project is carefully tailored to reflect the client’s lifestyle, aesthetic, and vision, whether modern and architectural or classic and timeless. The team works closely with homeowners throughout the process, ensuring every detail—from structure to finish—is intentionally considered and impeccably executed.

Specializing in high-end residences with bespoke features and refined finishes, The Dernehl Company is recognized for its meticulous attention to detail, transparent process, and unwavering commitment to excellence. This dedication has earned the firm a trusted reputation among discerning clients seeking not just a home, but a lasting investment in craftsmanship.

Married duo Brody and Jasmine Dernehl work hand in glove to realize some of the region’s most spectacular residences.
